

FACULTY VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Bowling Green State University Firelands invites applications for a tenure track position in Philosophy in the Department of Humanities at the rank of Assistant Professor beginning August, 2011. All candidates for this position should have Ph.D. in hand by August, 2011. This position requires a generalist who will flourish at a primarily two-year regional branch college of a major university and who demonstrates a commitment to and excellence in teaching; and who exhibits a strong preference for teaching lower-division undergraduate students. The ideal candidate should also demonstrate a commitment to interdisciplinary approaches and innovative teaching practices. Evidence of effective and successful teaching is required.

Areas of specialization and competence are open, although the ideal candidate must demonstrate a commitment to and excellence in teaching Ethics and Applied Ethics (including Medical Ethics), introductory level philosophy classes as well as some other areas of specialization within or outside of the area of Philosophy. Duties and responsibilities include teaching 12 hours per semester. Willingness to teach evening and/or weekend classes is required; experience with teaching technology such as computers and distance classes is preferred. In addition, the chosen candidate is expected to engage in research activities and participate in departmental, college and university service.

BGSU Firelands is one of seven undergraduate colleges of Bowling Green State University, offering courses in associate and baccalaureate degree programs to 2500 traditional and nontraditional commuter students. The college is committed to excellence in teaching and supports academic scholarship. The 216 acre campus also serves as a cultural center for the surrounding communities. BGSU Firelands is located near the Lake Erie shore in Huron, Ohio, and is accessible to the cultural and recreational opportunities of both Cleveland and Toledo. Additional information about BGSU Firelands is available online at <http://www.firelands.bgsu.edu>.

Individuals interested in being considered for this position are required to submit a letter of application and curriculum vita, official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate courses, and at least three current and original letters of reference to: Office of the Dean, BGSU Firelands, Philosophy Search Committee, One University Dr., Huron, OH 44839. Review of applications will begin December 15, 2010. The position will remain open until an offer has been accepted. Bowling Green State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer and encourages minorities, women, veterans and individuals with disabilities to apply.
