Bowling Green State University invites applications for a non-tenure track faculty position at the rank of Instructor of Social Work beginning August 2015. This will be a dual appointment in the Department of Natural and Social Sciences (BGSU Firelands College) and the Department of Human Services (College of Health & Human Services).

The Program seeks an individual committed to undergraduate social work education in a fully accredited BSW Program. Candidates must hold an MSW and have at least two years post MSW field experience. Teaching experience and knowledge of Web-based course development and assistive technology is preferred. The ideal candidate should exhibit a strong preference and aptitude for teaching undergraduate students, as well as demonstrate a commitment to interdisciplinary approaches, online instruction, and innovative teaching practices.

Primary responsibilities will be completed on the BGSU Firelands campus, with some teaching and service expectations on the main campus of BGSU. Responsibilities for this dual appointment include teaching 12 credit hours per semester in BGSU’s CSWE-accredited Social Work program and in the Associate’s degree program in Human Services. The individual may have responsibility for field liaison, including working with field sites, conducting site visits, and teaching the companion proactive skills seminar in the baccalaureate program. The chosen candidate is expected to participate in recruitment activities, engage in professional development/scholarship and community service and participate in departmental and college service activities.

The Social Work Program at BGSU is housed in the Department of Human Services (with Gerontology and Criminal Justice) in the College of Health and Human Services. The B.S. curricula is offered to students on both the main and the Firelands campus. BGSU Firelands is one of seven undergraduate colleges of Bowling Green State University, offering courses in associate and baccalaureate degree programs to 2500 traditional and nontraditional commuter students. BGSU Firelands is located near the Lake Erie shore in Huron, Ohio. Additional information about BGSU Firelands is available online at www.firelands.bgsu.edu and information about the social work program can be found at www.bgsu.edu/hhs

Applicants should submit a letter of application summarizing their suitability for the job, complete resume/CV, contact information, and three letters of reference written within the last 12 calendar months. Finalists are also required to furnish official transcripts.

Hard copy applications should be addressed to: Search Committee Chair, 100 Health Center, College of Health and Human Services, Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, OH 43403. Electronic submissions should be sent as attachments in Microsoft Word or Adobe PDF formats to hhsdean@bgsu.edu. Applications must be received by March 20, 2015.

Interested individuals can contact Dr. Derek Mason at dtmason@bgsu.edu or (419)372-8901.

A background check will be conducted prior to an offer of employment.

Bowling Green State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Educator and Employer. We are committed to a multicultural environment and strongly encourage applications from women, minorities, veterans and persons with disabilities.