Purpose
Describe the activities of the College Reappointment, Promotion, and Tenure Committee (C-RPTC) in carrying out the college-wide policies and procedures regarding reappointment, tenure, and promotion.

Voting Members
Three tenured faculty members from each department
- Elected by the entire faculty of the department and
- Elected for two academic years on a staggered basis.
- Department chair is ineligible, unless extenuating circumstances exist.

One senior lecturer from each department
- Elected by the entire faculty of the department and
- Elected for two academic years on a staggered basis.
- Department chair is ineligible, unless extenuating circumstances exist.
- This member will only participate in and vote on review of non-tenure track faculty.

A tenured or probationary alternate may be elected by the department in the event of a promotion review of a C-RPTC member.

A department may elect a member from a different department when the electing department has no member qualified to serve in the designated capacity.

Policy
The activities of the College Reappointment, Promotion, and Tenure Committee may include:

- Overseeing the review, including both substantive and procedural matters, of faculty requests for reappointment, promotion, and tenure.

- Forwarding all recommendations to the Dean.

- Assisting the departments in elaborating Bowling Green State University and Bowling Green State University Faculty Association-American Association of University Professors Collective Bargaining Agreement criteria for reappointment, promotion, and tenure and in defining the appropriate format and evidence for the credential file.

- Formulating any college-wide elaborations based upon the reappointment, tenure, and promotion criteria set forth in the Bowling Green State University and Bowling Green State University Faculty Association-American Association of University Professors Collective Bargaining Agreement.
